

January start courses 2022 - Undergraduate

www.rgu.ac.uk/january

Robert Gordon University now offers entry to a broad range of undergraduate programmes through our expanded International Year 1 pathway portfolio, delivered via our International College at Robert Gordon University (ICRGU).

Benefits of starting the International Year 1 in January

- The duration of the International Year 1 is 9 months – from mid January until early September
- Classes are taught over the summer months to lead seamlessly from successful completion of International Year 1 to continuing onto Year 2 of your chosen degree programme
- The International Year 1 has the same learning outcome as those students studying the first year undergraduate programme at the University, it simply offers an alternative start date for your convenience
- You will benefit from a tailored university level study skills module and will have access to all on-campus facilities

ACADEMIC TERM
International Year 1 - Semester 1
17 January 2022	29 April 2022
International Year 1 - Semester 2
3 May 2022	30 July 2022
Academic Year 2 Begins
6 September 2022

Who can apply for the International Year 1 in January?

You must be classed by the University as an international fee payer for tuition fee payment, and fall into any one of the following categories:

- You have missed the application deadline for the September 2021 intake
- You were made an offer to study at Robert Gordon University for the September 2021 intake, but unable to meet the deadline to submit the required supporting documents for a Confirmation of Acceptance for Studies (CAS)
- You have not met the academic requirement for the September 2021 intake

How to apply for International Year 1 in January

Apply via the ICRGU online application form, where you can upload your education documents direct to admissions, select your chosen course and complete your application - visit www.rgu.ac.uk/icrgu
